What is the World Federation of Occupational Therapists (WFOT)?

The World Federation of Occupational Therapists (WFOT) is the international organisation representing over 580,000 occupational therapists worldwide. With over 100,000 occupational therapy students and 50,000 occupational therapy assistants, the number of people involved in the profession is in excess of a half a million.

WFOT is truly unique in that it is the only organisation that represents 105 professional occupational therapy organisations worldwide.

History

Founded in 1952, WFOT is a Non-Government Organisation (NGO), which has been in official relations with the World Health Organisation (WHO) since 1959 and recognised by the United Nations (UN) since 1963.

Career

Occupational therapy was ranked as the 4th best job in 2019 – a worthy accolade (though we would rank it 1st!). A well established and continually growing profession, occupational therapy is recognised as one of the important health and social care professions throughout the world.

The World Federation of Occupational Therapists is the organisation that unites occupational therapy worldwide.

Why advertise with us?
